Princess Suzuka

Creative Kyogen

" Long- nosed child goblin of Suzuka"

Plot summary : There was an itinerant priest who finished his training in Mt Suzuka and came back to Yamauchi.

It was said that a beautiful Suzuka princess could communicate with nature. She was regarded as "the guardian spirit of Mt Suzuka."

A mischievous long-nosed child goblin often played tricks on the village children. When the itinerant priest heard that, he decided to punish the goblin with his spiritual power by reciting sutras.

The unrepentant goblin tried to fight back with his leaf fan.

A great display of their fighting wits takes place

The story is based on "Suzuka Princess and mischievous long-nosed child goblin of Yamauchi."

You can enjoy the children's performance of a Kyogen that expresses the wonderful power of nature.

The itinerant priest starts training and becomes a defender of nature.

The long-nosed child goblin represents people who are selfish.

The princess Suzuka is a water spirit and natural guardian of Shimizu

These three characters show us our society in which we are in conflict with nature

In this performance of Satoyama Kyogen, the Yamauchi Eco Club wants to give as many people as possible a chance to think about the water of Yasu River and the richness of culture.
